About this course

Gain an in-depth understanding of contemporary business with this innovative Business Management degree. With an emphasis on developing knowledge and insights of how this can be integrated within wider situations, you will become equipped with vital business skills and have the opportunity to put them into practice in both traditional and virtual settings.

The overall aim of the course is to deliver a contemporary and dynamic programme of study that provides you with the knowledge and skills inherent in the subject to prepare you for a career in business management.

Why study with London Metropolitan University Centres?

- Study in the heart of London, Birmingham or Manchester
- Small and personal class sizes
- Evening and weekend study options available
- Careers and ACE (Academic Community of Excellence) teams available for advice and support

What you'll study

If you choose to study the four-year programme, you will engage with business challenges in a stimulating environment, while boosting your confidence and acquiring crucial academic skills in your foundation year. This acts as excellent preparation for your subsequent three years of study, which will allow you to specialise in more specific and advanced areas of business.

The three-year degree will cover a range of modules including The Business Environment, Business Decision Making, Leadership and Leading, Strategy: Choices and Change, as well as have the chance to develop a business plan and complete a research project (dissertation). In addition you will undertake personal and academic skills.
